Tara, is one of my favorite person, and photographer to work with. She has amazing ideas, and is always pushing herself to do something different. So when we got a chance to collaborate on something I was totally game. The process was natural and organic, and the team was spectacular! Fashion is truly her passion, and I am looking forward to our next collaboration together. Stay tuned...

Talbots / 2015 Holiday Gift Store

I was hired as a consultant by Talbots to Art Direct their ecommerce catalog for close to two years. Worked on all stages of planning and directing photography, both still life and fashion. This included: talent selection, working closely with the producer for location selection, and on-location shoot management. Worked closely with the Creative Director and the merchants to ensure that the visuals supported and enhanced the merchandising strategy that drove sales.
